

Claiming a Listing

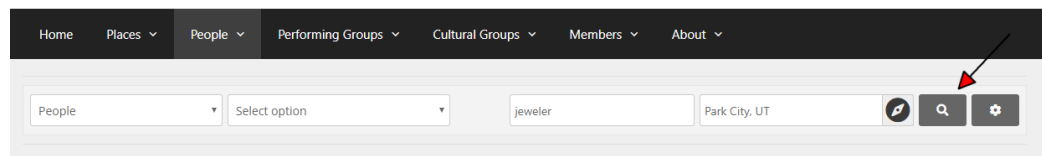

Somebody in the public will want to claim a listing as his own.

A) Find the listing

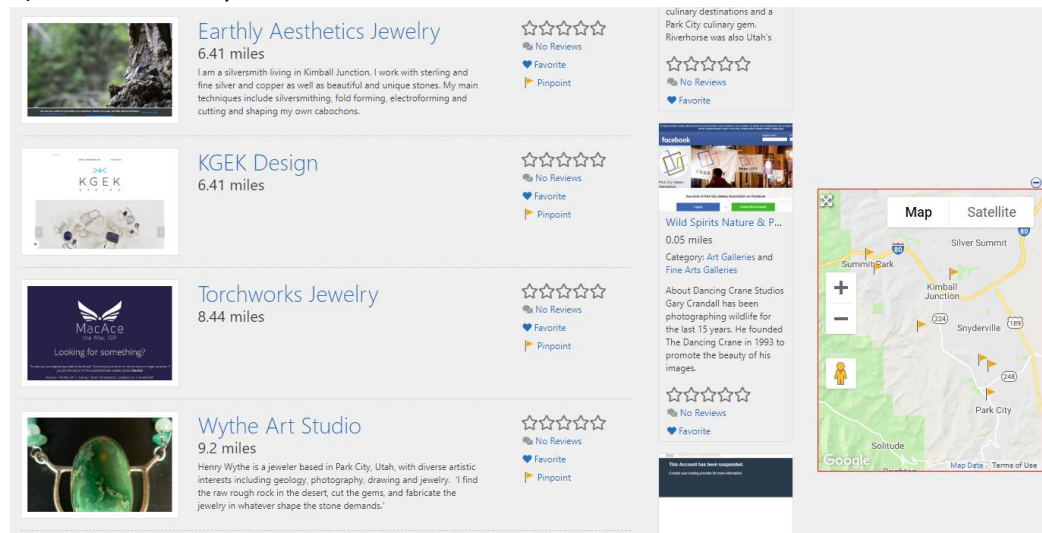

Let's assume that Henry is on the public page and finds his listing by doing this:

1) a search or some other navigation:

CultureListings

2) Then a directory list:

3) Clicking on the title opens the listing

B) Start a claim

When the listing is opened, the user can click the 'Claim Listing' link (if it's not yet claimed)
